CICES Dinner, Midland Hotel, Manchester

Save the date: 22 September 2023

Join president Andy Evans for a celebratory evening at the Midland Hotel in Manchester. First opened in 1903 and originally built to serve rail travellers from London, the stunning building and ballroom has charmed visitors day in and day out. The Midland Hotel was the place where Charles Rolls met Henry Royce and the formation of Rolls-Royce later occurred in 1904. Today the Grade II listed hotel is one of Manchester's most-loved icons; over the years it has hosted everyone from rock stars and politicians to royalty. The annual institution dinner is the must attend event in the surveying industry's calendar providing a great social evening to catch up with friends, colleagues and clients – both old and new.
